BOHEMIAN FOUNDATION HOSTS WORKSHOP FOR NONPROFIT BOARD MEMBERS AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

- WHAT Essentials in Governance Workshop
Bohemian Foundation will host a workshop for executive directors and board members of local nonprofits. In this session conducted by board governance expert, Emily Davis, participants will learn about specific resources, strategies and recommendations on:
- Governing roles and responsibilities for executive directors and board members.
 - Clear roles, expectations and commitments of board and staff in organizational leadership.
 - Various hats board members wear and when they should be worn.
 - Managing effective meetings and communications.
 - Strategies for effective recruitment and retention of boards.
- WHO This workshop is for executive directors and board members of local nonprofits.
- WHEN Wednesday, Jan. 20, 2016
1:30-4:30 p.m.
- WHERE The Armory, 314 E. Mountain Ave.
- WHY Board service is a critical component of nonprofit leadership and organizational success; however, expectations and best practices are often unclear. This session will provide information about best practices and strategies to create and sustain great governance between the board of directors and executive director.

DETAILS Visit www.bohemianfoundation.org/board-training to learn more or to register to attend this workshop. Space is limited, please RSVP no later than Jan. 13. There is no cost to attend.
