In 2016, Philanthropic Giving Topped $390.05 Billion

Where did the generosity come from?

Giving by Individuals $281.86 billion
Giving by Foundations $59.28 billion
Giving by Bequest $30.36 billion
Giving by Corporations $18.55 billion

The single largest contributor to the growth in total giving was an increase of $10.53 billion in GIVING BY INDIVIDUALS.

INDIVIDUAL DONORS drove the rise in philanthropic giving.

Data comes from Giving USA 2017: The Annual Report on Philanthropy for the Year 2016. This resource is provided by Giving USA Foundation, The Giving Institute and the Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy. Visit www.GivingUSA.org to learn more and to order your copy.

FOCUS ON GIVING E-NEWSLETTER

We distributed the first Give 10 Focus on Giving e-newsletter in July. Local leaders from organizations supporting children and families shared their insights for this first edition. Focus on Giving is emailed to Give 10 members who let us know they are interested in these issues. You can find a copy on the Give 10 website. If you’d like to receive relevant Focus on Giving e-newsletters in the future, be sure to submit your Give 10 Interest Profile.

On Sept. 6 from 5-6:30 p.m., we will host a Give 10 happy hour with local leaders to discuss the complex issues facing children and families. Email Sara at sara@bohemianfoundation.org to RSVP. Space is limited, so register soon.

INTEREST PROFILES

Earlier this year we mailed everyone the new Give 10 Interest Profile form. Over 30% of Give 10 members completed the forms. Don’t worry, you haven’t missed your chance – you can return the form anytime. (Email Sara if you need another copy.) Give 10 programming is based on this information, so we’re always eager to receive more profiles.

Here’s what we learned from the completed forms:

TOP LOCAL ISSUES:
- Human Services - Children, Youth, and Family
- Housing and Shelter
- Performing Arts and Culture
- Community Improvement
- K-12 Education
- Environment
- Homelessness
- Health

TOP GIVING INTEREST AREAS:
- Exploring personal values and how values inform local giving.
- Finding meaningful volunteer opportunities.

GIVING THROUGH VOLUNTEERING

We asked local nonprofit leaders to share their suggestions for meaningful volunteer opportunities. We hope you’re inspired by these ideas and will consider participating in these opportunities or others throughout the community.

Lead playgroups for children living at Crossroads Safehouse.

Volunteer as a shelter host at Catholic Charities. Greet and talk with clients during the early evening resident hours.

Participate with the Voices Carry staff in the Imagine Zero coalition which is working to end suicide in Northern Colorado. Or help at the Voices Carry house—tasks include gardening, cleaning toys, etc.

Be part of a group that supports a family navigating the path from homelessness to self-sufficiency through Homeless Gear’s One Village One Family program.

Help Boys and Girls Clubs students with their homework or participate as a coach or referee in their sports league.

Tutor a parent learning English as a second language or lead a Cooking Matters class for families at the Family Center / La Familia.

Mentor children through the Matthews House Homework Helper program. Or volunteer as a HOST (Housing Opportunities Supporting Transition) home and provide temporary housing to youth and families in transition.

Contact Sara if you’d like introductions to these organizations.
